VANCE M'CORMICK OF PENNSYLVANIA WILSON'S CHOICE

President Selects Harrisburg Newspaperman to Solidify Party as Successor of William F. McCombs.

(By Evening Herald Special Wire)
Washington, June 15.—Vance M'Cormick, of Harrisburg, Pa., has been selected by President Wilson to succeed William F. McCombs as chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

It is believed here that Mr. M'Cormick will be able to solidify the party and harmonize different elements. The president looks upon him as progressive and thoroughly in harmony with his ideas of how the coming campaign should be run.

In addition to the work to be carried on by Mr. M'Cormick and the committee, campaign activities will be managed from Washington by Secretary McAdoo, Postmaster General Harbo, Secretary Rumrill, Secretary Baker and other administration leaders.

St. Louis, June 15.—Word was received from Washington this afternoon that the election of the following officers of the new Democratic National Committee would be successful.

Charles H. Mayo is chosen head of medical association.
